Personal Statement (no more than 500 words)

Thank you for considering me to represent you on the RAPV Board of Directors.

I truly believe that real estate is the greatest job in the world. In this unique industry, we are not just competitors but also best friends—a sentiment rarely found in other professions like insurance or financial planning.

My goals are to continue educating the public about the invaluable role of Realtors and to support Realtors in thriving within this business. This includes focusing on the health and welfare of our members and helping them with retirement planning, such as building a business that can be successfully transferred to another Realtor upon retirement.

I approach this business with a sense of calm and purpose, and I hope to share that mindset with my fellow Realtors, ensuring that we all enjoy long, successful careers in real estate.

Again, Thank you for your consideration!
